Eric was a close family friend, my husband and him we're best buds, they we're also quading buddies, they always made time to go on daddy/kids camping and often day trips together, we always did the annual Pumpkin Patch trips together in October we always had to watch out cause when you got Eric and Chris together in the Corn maze ya had to watch out for flying corn, we always got our families together for birthday parties and often throughout the year for just meeting up for lunch, Eric was a part of our family as his family, we have many wonderful memories which we will treasure. We love and miss you Eric.

We bought the Fryklund's home in Corvallis 25 years ago when Eric was a boy. He stopped by about ten years later. I was on my way to an appointment and invited him to come back. He never did. I wish he had, he seemed like such a nice young man. We still have his name tag stuck on a hall closet wall, as I believe a house carries a part of all of its former occupants. We wish his family comfort in knowing he is well remembered. John and Vivian Myers
