Opal Jean Anundi

JAN 18, 1929 - APR 13, 2013

Opal Jean Anundi was born on January 18, 1929 in Plankinton, S. Dakota to George & Fenza May (Bilyue) Keough.

She died at her granddaughters home in Portland on April 13, 2013 at the age of 84.

Mr. Keough was a rancher in South Dakota and the children grew up with and loved the farm animals.

Opal married Leeman Anundi in November of 1947. She lived in St. Helens most of her adult life. She owned and operated Mode O' Day clothing store.

Her enjoyments included the beach house at Ocean Park, WA., camping and traveling with her children and grandchildren.

Survivors include: Daughter: Ronda Grau of St. Helens; Siblings: George Keough & Marion Cram both of Snohomish, WA.; 5 Grandchildren, 5 Great-Grandchildren.

Private Graveside Service & Vault Interment: this week at Murray Hill Cemetery-Clatskanie, Oregon.

I remember her laugh and smile, it lit up a room. Many fond memories growing up with April and spending so much time with Opal at her store and home. She was a very bright soul and will be missed. Prayers, hugs and love to the family.

Dear Rhonda and family, We are so sorry for your loss. It is hard to know that Opal has passed. You know that we had lots of good visits and LOTS of laughs . Your Mom was a dear person. I will always remember the good times and I will always remember her great laugh. The world has lost a very loving,caring, giving delightful lady. I will treasure her memory forever.

Memories only last if you share them
