Corrine volunteered at the St. Helens Public Library for many years. I was able to get to know her through the years and even invited her to my wedding in 2002. She was always a delight to be with. We had some great conversations during our years together at the library. I will remember her as a woman with a kind heart and a twinkle in her eye. She will be missed by all. Diane Barbee

Through my volunteer work since last November with Clare Bridge of Beaverton, I came to know Corrine. Her ready smile, laugh and the twinkle in her eyes always welcomed me every week. Her least favorite thing was morning exercise where she readily gave her opinion about what exercises I would lead. I would catch her eye and we would laugh together, and sometimes I would say "no comments from the peanut gallery please!" and she would laugh knowing I meant her. I already miss her. Karen Cox
