Carol Faye Narragon

OCT 22, 1947 - MAY 22, 2015

C arol Narragon Oct. 22, 1947-May 22, 2015

Carol Narragon, 67 years young, was born on October 22, 1947, in Dawson, Minnesota to Everett and Cora Van Binsbergen.

She grew up and attended high school in Clara City, Minnesota where she met her beloved husband, Marlin.

Carol and Marlin moved to Warren, Oregon where Carol embarked on a rewarding and successful Real Estate career with John L. Scott. She was deeply accomplished, respected, and highly honored by her peers and colleagues over her 20+ year career.

Carol was a loving wife to Marlin, beautiful and dedicated mother to Brooke and Derek, and a dotting grandmother to Sayrha.

She was a woman of pure class and style, lighting up any room she entered. Her love was unconditional, and her loyalty to those she loved was steadfast and ever-present.

Carol embodied an effortless grace, unshakable faith, and displayed inspirational courage, even in her most challenging hours. She passed away peacefully at home surrounded by immense love and family after a valiant 4½ year battle with ovarian cancer.

Carol was one of the first people I met when I moved to Oregon 26 years ago. Not surprising our first meeting was when she came to my rescue. First day of work and low and behold I lock my keys in the car. My new boss called Carol and she graciously picked me up and delivered me to work. As I have learned over the years, that is the norm for Carol, always there to help if and when you needed it. And of course this would not be complete if I did not mention shopping. It was Christmas, and Carol and I had a shopping spree planned. Of course I had to meet her at work as we all know she was very dedicated to her clients. Someone was coming in to sign documents. She subtly introduced me to my future husband and then quickly left the room. On our shopping trip she made sure to let me know he was single and a really nice guy. Little did I know Carol was playing match-maker. Carol had a heart the size of Texas. I feel blessed and so lucky to have know her. She will be greatly missed by all.
