Kyle Coleman Shattuck my nephew, son of my brother Philip Shattuck was a gentle, kind, loving young man. These trait's along with his impeccable manners I admired greatly. His spirit was genuine, when he said he loved you he mean't it. If he said you were beautiful he mean't it. Kyle had no guile in him, he was an honest being, to the core of his very soul. His loyalty to his family, loved one's and friends was without question. Kyle we all loved you so much, way more than beyond Infinity. We lost you from this earth way to soon. It will take some time for each of us to accept this great loss of the lovely human being you were Kyle. I know you are now with your Dad and he's got his arms around you guiding you along in heaven. We miss you Kyle. Auntie misses you. I remember well that day we walked your family's land, after we lost your Dad. You described in detail his love for it and each member of your family. You described in detail your love for it, your Dad, your Mother and each of your siblings. Kyle, I knew in those moments..right then and there.. you were a very special human being. I love you Kyle, Infinity
