That smile says it all. I met Helen through Grange. She was always so cheery and welcoming. The only sad time was when Fred died. I worked at the Pumpkin Patch for 20 years so I ran into Helen even after I left Grange. I would see her occasionally at the Scappoose Senior Center on "feet" day. She always remembered my name and always asked about my husband. Her greeting was a big hug and a kiss on the lips. It was a greeting that family give one another. You all were so lucky to have this loving woman for so many years. Charleen and Terry Houghton

We always enjoyed Helen and Fred, at the New Years parties at Callahans, the New Years Brunch at Dexters and the Super Bowl parties at Mazours. Helen always had a warm smile and a hug, whenever we would see her. Such a very special family. We have fond memories of them. Love, Sue and Jim Lomnicky
