Hi Uncle Steve, We've never met, and we won't in this lifetime but I've heard about you so much from your nephew, Joshua. You were the father he should have had--no offense, Dennis--and everything good and kind in him, as a man, came from you. He is the love of my life and my best friend and these days, he could very much use your presence. I believe he is finally ready to start thriving, and not just surviving, as he has been these last years. He could use your strength right now, to persevere his situation and to continue the good choices he is making. Thank you, Uncle Steve. Thank you for your service and your presence in this life.
