Jocilyn Dawn Williams

JUN 29, 1979 - OCT 30, 2006

Jocilyn was born to Gerald and Ruth Wellborn Williams on June 29, 1979 in Portland, Oregon.

Jocilyn was a 1998 graduate from Scappoose High.

She moved to Georgia after graduation and attended two years of college. She liked it there so much that she decided to stay in Georgia and build a life. She continued to be a member of Creekside Baptist Church and loved the Lord.

Jocilyn loved to ride her bike, sew, read and be with friends. She recently took up an interest in cooking and would call home for advice.

Jocilyn had many friends here in Oregon and in Georgia who will miss her greatly and are deeply saddened by her tragic and untimely death. Her family loves and misses her very much.

Survivors include her mother, Ruth Wellborn of Scappoose, Oregon; father, Gerald Don Williams of Ft. Meyers, Florida; sisters: Petra Wellborn-Kaiser of Scappoose, Oregon and Italy Hunt of Lincoln City, Oregon; and brother, Jeff Williams of Singapore; Grandmother, Ellen Wellborn of Portland, Oregon and Grandfather, Virgil Wellborn of Las Vegas, Nevada; and Aunts: Sherry Wellborn of Eugene, Oregon, Lori Wellborn of Beaverton, Oregon and Anna Wellborn of Portland, Oregon.

A funeral service will be Monday, November 6, 2006 at Creekside Baptist Church. Private interment will be at Bethany Lutheran Cemetery.

Donations may be made to stop domestic violence against women: S.A.F.E. Family Ministries P.O. Box 1141 Chahalis, WA 98532

I knew Joci from Shorter. She was my sister Erin's roommate, and she and I became friends outside of my sister. She visited our mom's house often, and my daughter absolutely loved her! She was such a beautiful and wonderful girl, and will definately be missed by Erin and me. We loved her so much, and are so thankful for the impact she had on our lives.To her family, we are deeply sorry for your loss, and can't begin to imagine what you are going through. Joci was very special to our entire family. Please know that your family is in our prayers now, and will be for the months and years to come.##imported-begin##Montie Nelson Finnegan##imported-end##

I am very sorry to hear the untimely death of Jocilyn. I knew her from our grade school years. We shared a few classes together, but I never did get a chance to really know her. But of what I do remember of her, she liked to laugh, she was always laughing about something humorous. May she rest in peace.##imported-begin##RaeLynn Moreno##imported-end##

I was one of the regulars where she worked as her second job at PJ's Coffee in Atlanta. I've only know here since June of 2006 but since I visited the coffee shop often I've seen her 2-3 times a week. In the morning she is parked outside PJ's for her monrning coffee. She liked sweets, she always recommend me sweets and hot chocolate, and on occasion she told me an interesting combination of coffee and flavor shots. She once told me that cinnamon rolls are delicious, but she microwaves for about 20 seconds so the topping melts and oozing down... she also got me into myspace.com, she showed and expained to mehow I can utilize this space. I lead hiking events on weekends, and have been asking her to join the group, and she was saying that she wants to join on some of the easier hike and camping trip. She told me that she had a great time going to Helen with Lindsay. She was excited about the Halloween, she said it's going to be her first PJ's Halloween. She said she was making a fairy costume for Derek... The last time I saw her was a Saturday before Halloween, I was meeting a friend to goto a party, I gave Jocilyn a handfull of chocolate eyeballs, and she said "I love these things, it has caramel inside, thanks!" She was sweet, and nice person, I often looked forward to talk to her when I visited PJ's.##imported-begin##Susumu Komatsu##imported-end##
