Ardis J. Boylan

JUL 10, 1926 - AUG 17, 2009

Ardis J. Boylan was born on July 10, 1926 in St. Helens, Oregon to James & Mary Hulen Harris.

She died at a Portland hospital on August 17, 2009 at the age of 83.

Ardis attended schools in St. Helens and lived here most of her life. She also married Vincent Boylan in St. Helens on November 12, 1943.

During her working years she was employed at the bag factory, Brandenfolds, the Searight Dry Cleaners and her favorite was a cook on the H.D. Campbell Tugboat from Rangell, Alaska with her husband.

She was a member of the Church of Christ and her interests included cooking, shopping, reading, jigsaw & crossword puzzles, but most of all her grandkids and family.

Ardis is survived by her Husband: Captain Vincent Boylan; Daughter & son-in-law: Ardis & John Nissen all of Vancouver, WA.; 6 grandchildren; 7 great grandchildren; preceded in death by a son: Vince J.C. Boylan.

I first met Grama B when I was only 15 and she was only 40! It was 1966, and I had met and fell in love with her sweet son Vince. After Vince and I married he was away in the Navy alot, and her husband was away working the tugboats a lot, so we had much time to be together. I have wonderful memories of those days. She was a blessing to the lonely little newly wed I was.Grama B always has had and always will have a very special place in my heart. And I can only imagine the beautiful reunion when she arrived in Heaven to be with the Lord forever and she got to hold her son in her arms again.Love...##imported-begin##Cheryle##imported-end##
