Dear Kathy and family, We just found about your mother's death and just wanted you to know how much we always enjoyed your mom AND your dad those many years in the pharmacy. They were wonderful people. Your mother and my mother are the same age, and for some reason I had remembered that from a conversation of many years ago. We send our sincere sympathy, and know that it was our pleasure to have known both of your parents. Sincerely, Darrel and Helen Purkerson##imported-begin##Helen Purkerson##imported-end##

My sympathy to the family. I LOVED by 5th grade teacher. While I saw her only a few times in my adult life, Mrs. Olson was a classy lady and I believe she had a great impact on my life and inspired many a student as well! I so admired the love that she and Mr. Olson had-- you could just see the love between them! Take care##imported-begin##Kathy Bukovi Hauck##imported-end##

I was so sad that I didn't hear about Charlotte's death and the memorial until too late to attend. I loved Charlotte, and appreciated her warmth and her creativity. She made us feel welcomed at Warren Community Fellowship, and took a particular interest in our younger daughter, Tessa, taking her on little field trips and showing her things that she thought she might be interested in. I loved going by her house at Easter time and seeing the egg-tree in the front yard. I copy her front porch decoration of greens and holly in a milk can at Christmas, and it reminds me of her each year as I fill it up. Sadly, after she moved to Longview, I only saw her a few times at church events. I felt like we were kindred spirits, and even more so after reading the lovely story of her life that was written by Jim Morud. She will be one of those special ones that I look for in heaven. Please accept our deepest sympathies. Love, Becky and Leo Franz##imported-begin##Becky and Leo Franz##imported-end##

I was so sorry to read that Charlotte had passed on. and interested to learn her middle name was the same as my mom's, Fern. Your mom was a wonderful, positive and delightfully organized woman. I always admired her. My sincere condolences.##imported-begin##phyllis
