O bituary of Faith Elaine Coryell

Faith was a member of Mill Park Baptist Church, and it was there that she had many good friends and spiritual support.

She is survived by her children Larry, Tenny, Steve and Dan Silva; daughter Elizabeth Thomas. Grandchildren, Randi Bressel, Amy Povey, Angela Frost, Kilee Silva, Michael Thomas, Bruce Steward, Jamie Eichel & Amanda Silva; and numerous great grandchildren.

Mom will be missed as she loved outings. Our last few will be dearest in my heart: Cranberry Festival, Larry's birthday dinner and Easter Dinner in Beaverton with Martha's family. Particularly her -3 point turn on Powell St. She planned to go to Lion King play with us as she loved the music. We will still attend with her in mind. I will also miss the phone calls to talk. Faith filled my mother's place as she left due to illness.##imported-begin##Theresa and Larry Silva##imported-end##

Steve and Family, My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time. Your Mother did such a wonderful job raising you Steve, and I have to imagine how proud she was of each and every one of you. May you continue to find strength with each new day that comes your way, and my hope is that you find "little things" that show you she is still watching over you. I know how much you will miss her. To My Dear Sweet Cuz: Oh how I am going to miss you my dear. It doesn't seem possible nor fair that I am the last one standing. I will always remember the great times and the sad ones. The laughter and the tears. We shared them all. You are in my heart forever. I love you and will miss you desperately. Thanks for being the sister I never had growing up. Lovingly, Your Cousin Nancyann
