I worked with Shirley at Columbia District Hospital and LOVED HER. Over the years, I would run into, when I was here visiting my family, she always had something wonderful to say. She will be missed!##imported-begin##Peg Tarbell##imported-end##

What a sweet and loving woman Shirley was! I visited with her often when I went to see my aunt Lois and my mother, Blanche, at Columbia Hills and then at Spring Meadows. I always admired her because she was intelligent, wise, and always beautiful. She was a strong but quiet lady who loved her Savior most of all. And now she must be rejoicing with her many, many friends and relatives in Heaven. My sincere condolences to Mary Ann and each of the other relatives she leaves behind.##imported-begin##Jennine Lindberg##imported-end##
