Chuck was one of my very best friends growing up in NJ. We lost contact when he moved to Alaska, but the memories we shared, have never faded. I always thought that I would see him one more time in this life. The laughs, fun times, good times, and bad times where epic. Rest in Peace C.Roy.##imported-begin##Keith J. Eshback##imported-end##

Amber and Mark,When we lose someone we love, they are always with us in our hearts and that love continues to grow, not diminish. May you always feel the love and hold it close to your hearts in good times and bad and may it always bring you joy and comfort. Love, Aunt Sandy##imported-begin##Sandy ##imported-end##
