I am your sister from the same mother and father. The attributes which were mentioned by many before, during and after your memorial service were a part of you all of your life. Your love of God and life, your generosity and humor were not lost during your years of addiction. Often, you were taking care of someone along the way. You never lied to yourself or others about your shortcomings and poor choices. And, the people who have known you all of your life and not just 10 or 12 years know that we, as a family, were set an example of how to live our lives by our parents. To live in faith, with tolerance of the differences in others and to share what we have with good will. Dickie, you exemplified those lessons. I will miss you always. But, I thank God for Billy, Nancy, Gayle and Bobbie, my other brothers and my sisters of the same Mother and Father. Above all else, we always knew that we were loved.##imported-begin##Nadine##imported-end##

I praise God for who you are Norman. The gift of your friendship was more than I could have ever asked for. You were always there with an encouraging word, a hug, or just to sit if I needed it. I'm going to miss you, but I have faith we'll meet again one day. I know you have heard His words which I long to hear, "Welcome my good and faithful servant."##imported-begin##Terri Coffey##imported-end##

Praying that God will comfort your family during this time; for as we celebrate the Homegoing of Dickie and the reunion he will have with Aunt Gladys and other loved ones; his family here will have heartache and grieve the emptiness that comes from death; praise the Lord we have comfort from our Heavenly Father.
