Wilma was a good friend to me. We worked together at Volunteers of America in the late '90's and she was such a great entertainment to me. She drove me to and from work during my pregnancy and that meant so much to me. Her humor was the greatest! I have thought about her throughout the years remembering her laugh and her crazy ways and wondered how she is getting along. I am very sorry to find that she has passed. Wilma made such an impact on everyone around her. She won't be forgotten.##imported-begin##Carrie##imported-end##

Wilma was my best friends cousin. Judy and she were very, very close. I've only met Wilma a few times but on all occasions she was very gregarious and full of energy. Her tragedy is a loss to many. My prayers to all who knew and loved Wilma. Wilma - watch over Judy and help her with peace.BobbieCuts+##imported-begin##Bobbie Crouser##imported-end##

They say the people that stay in your life for the shortest time, have the biggest impact on your life. You told me you love me, I was happy, and Chels said when you say it you mean it. You were so sweet to me, and I told you i love you too. I wish I could have gotten to know you better, you cracked me up so much on Christmas :. Thank you for the the beautiful girls you have given me, I love them with everything I am and I'm always gonna be here protecting them and loving them. These girls are THE biggest impact on my life.Thank you WilmerAlways, Taylor :##imported-begin##Taylor Glbbs##imported-end##

Mom, I don't know where to begin, I love you with all of my heart. Dad, Henry, Haylee and I miss you so much already. You are my best friend. We bumped heads a lot, probably because I'm just like you but our love was strong. I can't thank you enough for everything you have done for me. I don't know what I will do without you mom. Until we meet again I will hold you in my heart. We love you mom forever.Your daughter, Chels###imported-begin###Chelsea Lightfoot###imported-end###

So sorry to all that Wilma has passed on, but happy for the peace that she feels. Wilma introduced me to the 'Stones and Allman Bros. and the engineering and acquisition skills that it takes to build a treehouse and a carpeted one at that. She also taught me how to write a letter. She wrote a classic one at the tender age of 15, when we found out that Aunt Ardis had ALS, that describes wants & needs of life and love. This letter was as graceful and powerful as the Gettysburg Address. Wilma, I'll be thinking of you when I hear the thunder up there. We weren't famous for being quiet or holding back and I don't expect that to change now.Dale & Mai##imported-begin##Dale & Mai Edwards##imported-end##

We are so sorry to see you leave us so soon. Thank you so much for being a part of our family, for pitching some mean horseshoes at the family reunions I think you even gave the horse a ride and for being willing to come out and grieve with me when my sister died, even if your meatballs did get a bit scorched! I loved reconnecting with you now that we are all grown up...HUGS to the rest of your family that is left to miss you...you will always be in our hearts.###imported-begin###Liana Berge###imported-end###

Dear Liz, Rose, Nettie, Chelsea, Henry, John, Hey girls, I realize that we haven't seen each other in a long time, but for me, hanging at your house or the treehouse I had to be peeled from the tree trunk by Wool to get down from!in Glendora, feels like yesterday right now. You girls were always so close, and you included me in your family, I've never thanked you, I will always love you for that, thank you...Never in my life would I have imagined that Wool would beat me in leaving this phase of our lives, because she's always been so full of it! Life, I mean!Ha!I can hear her right now-Very Funny Davis!- I told Liz the other day that I spoke to Wool for about half an hour, a few days before her surgery, and she was looking forward to being free of what she saw as the last of the pain she'd been dealing with...so don't ever let it cross your mind she may have felt otherwise, if you get no answers from the doctors as to what happened, know that, and that she told me about all your lives, loved you all so much, and that talking about her granddaughter lit up her face in a way I'd never seen before, in all the years of knowing her. I'll never regret that this skinny kid in the 7th grade, made sure she would be her friend, which was an honor, I am blessed to have known her. The hole she leaves in my life I will try to fill with memories, I hope there will be a time when we can get together and share some of them...All My Love, Laurie##imported-begin##Laurie Davis##imported-end##
