I will always remember the fun and laughter Sharon and I had making candy in those little molds and especially those delicious caramels. A few days after I met her at work, she was insisting I take a couple of her newly made sundresses on a cruise my husband and I were taking. I knew then what a special person she was and that we would be good friends forever. She amazed me making those beautiful quilts and canning all those vegetables and putting in the freezer. When we were at Duke Hospital where my husband got lung transplants, she was in the area on business at Thanksgiving. She volunteered to make Thanksgiving dinner for us . There were 12 friends and family for lunch. She made enough food to feed 30 people and it was delicious. She was a true friend and I loved her so. I can't imagine life without her. I am thankful she is no longer in pain.

Sharon and I shared a friendship for nearly 40 years. We shared all the ups and downs of our lives including marriage, children and our families. One particularly fond memory was our 'girls vacation' in Hawaii with her girls in the late 70's. My daughter's regarded Sharon like a grandma and loved her dearly as I did. It seems like one day we were giggling and laughing and then it feels like the next day she just slipped away. I know Sharon is no longer in pain, I can hear her giggle and see her warm, loving smile. Rest peacefully Sharon.##imported-begin##Dana Clark##imported-end##

Sharon and I were friends since our grade school years at Orient. We kept up with each other through the years and celebrated our good times and cried over our bad times mostly on the phone because I have lived in the South most of my life. I will truly miss her, she was a good friend.##imported-begin##Donna Jackson##imported-end##
