“ To all the Laird family and friends of Les himself. I wish you my deepest condolences and prayers for comfort and strength for all of you. May all your memories be good ones. Light and love and best of strength and uplifting to his mother. who recently also lost another of her sons as well. No mother should have to experience this kind of loss so close together and before her own passing as we as parents usually go before our children, or at least hope to. So sorry my dear for your losses. God bless and keep the whole family in his care and loving arms. And most especially to the pastor of Warren Baptist Church, who gave him great comfort and love and relief from worries while here in this world. Peace and great blessings to you and your congregation for your love and support.....Love and memories of 54 years of friendship.....Carla Lamb (Keys) 6th grade childhood sweetheart from Adelanto, California. Walked with Les for our graduation ceremony in 1970, in Victorville, California. Shared the wedding of our mutual friend Cyndee Ross at her home. Shared many friendships and relationships together through the years. Fellow poetry writer, lover of the outdoors and trees. Creative designer of clocks from felled trees and collector of rocks and lover of his faithful friend Sam, his dog and companion of many years. Les was a misunderstood man who was quite lonely but always giving and kind. He was generous to a fault and was taken advantage of by many for his good heart and willingness to think the best of others. He loved his hunting and fishing and crabbing and enjoyed living in Oregon in the latter part of his life. He will be missed and remembered fondly with love. RIP kind soul....go to your Lord and reward and peace.

“ I met Harold / Les thru a mutual friend in Austin, TX. Hadn't seen him after that original meeting; which was in Church in Austin. However, we became very good friends on the phone. We often prayed together over the phone about his situations and he often talked me thru 100 miles or so of driving to keep me awake while I was traveling.

We intended to go 'crabbing' but never got the opportunity. He was a great friend; even long distance. I sure will and already DO miss the phone calls as we talked about every other day or so.

A good Christian man is the best thing I can say about him. All the way til the end. He was even involved in a Bible Study Group at the hospice center where he was.

My best to his FAMILY as I know that they have had a lot to deal with in the last several months. I hope to see him again...That is our hope in Jesus.

Always,
Doug Row
