“ He was the second person I met when I moved to Oregon. I moved down the street from he and Becky. Becky, Randy and their mother Carole were my family when I moved here.

“ I have wonderful memories of Randy. He was my cousin. My favorite memories are of Randy, Chris, Becky and I sitting at the coffee table/ kids table for holiday meals at Grandpa Perry and Grandma Alice's home. We always laughed and laughed and loved putting olives on our fingers. Grandma was very generous and let us have one for each finger. I can almost hear our laughter now. Randy, you will be missed but someday, when the time is right, we will join your with our Heavenly Father and have lots of more great laughs.
